

04 NCAC 24B .0106 SUSPENSION OF BENEFITS FOR PROBATION VIOLATORS WHO AVOID ARREST

(a) Upon receipt of a valid court order resulting from a probation violation for absconsion or willful avoidance of arrest, DES shall suspend benefits pursuant to the terms outlined by the issuing judge in the order, effective beginning on the Sunday following the effective date of the order.

(b) Within seven days of receiving the order, DES shall provide written notice and reasons for the ineligibility for benefits to the claimant, the issuing court, and the North Carolina Department of Public Safety.

(c) The notice shall state:

- (1) the claimant's name;
- (2) the claimant's address as contained in DES's official records and provided with the court order;
- (3) the date the order was entered; and
- (4) the effective date of the claimant's ineligibility for benefits.
