

04 NCAC 24D .0203 GROUNDS FOR PROTESTING LIST OF CHARGES

An employer shall only file protests for:

- (1) the reasons set forth in G.S. 96-11.3;
- (2) clerical errors in the list of charges;
- (3) charges resulting from individuals who were never employed by the employer; or
- (4) the claimant has new separation from employment occurring between the date that the claimant's benefit year began and the last week ending date for which the claimant was paid benefits, and a base period employer did not have an opportunity to request noncharging on the subsequent separation.
