

10A NCAC 14J .1733 CENTRAL CONTROL STATION

In municipal lockups that have a central control station, the station shall:

- (1) be strategically located and equipped to regulate and monitor the movement of inmates and officers;
- (2) have a security vestibule at its entrance;
- (3) have direct two-way voice communication with all confinement units;
- (4) have direct two-way voice communication with all officers as needed to maintain safety and security;
- (5) be equipped with a release mechanism to open all confinement unit doors in an emergency;
- (6) have a toilet and sink.

*History Note: Authority G.S. 153A-221;
Eff. June 1, 1990;
Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. January 5, 2016.*