

13 NCAC 19 .0702 LITIGATION

In determining whether to file a civil action or issue a right-to-sue letter, the Commissioner shall consider the interests of both the public and the individual complainant. If the Commissioner elects to file a civil action, the Commissioner shall control all aspects of the litigation, which shall include the acceptance of any proposed settlement.

*History Note: Authority G.S. 95-245;
Eff. April 1, 1999;
Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. July 22, 2018.*