

15A NCAC 18A .3627 RE-SERVING OF FOOD

In Resident Camps, food once served to a consumer shall not be served again and not left for the next consumer. Packaged food, other than potentially hazardous food, that is still packaged and is still wholesome, may be re-served.

*History Note: Authority G.S. 130A-235; 130A-248;
Eff. October 1, 2007;
Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. July 20, 2019.*