

19A NCAC 02D .0506 COMPLETION OF VOYAGE

If, through failure, act of God, or other misfortune, carrier's vessel fails to complete her voyage, neither the master of the vessel nor the carrier shall be under any obligation to forward passengers or vehicles to their original destination, nor to refund all or any part of any tolls paid; which shall be deemed as earned.

History Note: Authority G.S. 136-82; 143B-10(j);

Eff. July 1, 1978;

Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. September 6, 2016.