

(a) A licensee shall not:

(a) A licensee shall not:

- (1) knowingly make any deceptive or false statement about another's professional work or maliciously injure or attempt to injure the prospects, practice, or employment position of those so engaged;
- (2) knowingly make any deceptive or false statements in an application for examination or in any other statements or representations to the Board, to any public agency, to a prospective or actual client, or to another Landscape Architect; or
- (3) fail to notify the Board of disciplinary action by a landscape architect licensing, registration or certification entity in another jurisdiction within five business days of that jurisdiction's final action in the matter.

- (b) Because of the inherent conflict of interest with construction services, a landscape architect shall not provide contracting services, including combined design and construction (design-build) practice, unless he or she does the following:

- (1) uses the term "limited landscape architectural services" in all representations to the public and the client; and
- (2) affixes a notation on each construction drawing and the cover of technical specifications stating: "These construction drawings and technical specifications represent the full extent of the limited landscape architectural services provided for this project."
