(a) Following a disciplinary hearing either party may request a new hearing or to reopen the hearing for good cause as provided in G.S. 90-14.7. For the purposes of this Rule, good cause is defined as any of the grounds set out in Rule 59 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure and complying with the following requirements:

- (1) Following hearings conducted by a quorum of the Board, a motion for a new hearing or to reopen the hearing to take new evidence shall be served, in writing, on the presiding officer of the disciplinary hearing no later than 20 days after service of the final order upon the respondent. Supporting affidavits, if any, and a memorandum setting forth the basis of the motion together with supporting authorities, shall be filed with the motion. The opposing party has 20 days from service of the motion to file a written response, any reply affidavits, and a memorandum with supporting authorities. A quorum of the Board shall rule on the motion based on the parties' written submissions and oral arguments, if the Board permitted any; and
- (2) Following hearings conducted by a hearing panel pursuant to G.S. 90-14.5, a motion for a new hearing or to reopen the hearing to take new evidence shall be served, in writing, on the presiding officer of the hearing panel no later than 20 days after service of the recommended decision upon the respondent or respondent's counsel. Supporting affidavits, if any, and a memorandum setting forth the basis of the motion together with supporting authorities, shall be filed with the motion. The opposing party has 20 days from service of the motion to file a written response, any reply affidavits, and a memorandum with supporting authorities. The hearing panel shall rule on the motion based on the parties' written submission and oral arguments, if the Board permitted any.

(b) Either party may file a motion for relief from the final order of the Board based on any of the grounds set out in Rule 60 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. Relief from the final order of the Board shall not be permitted later than one year after the effective date of the final order from which relief is sought. Motions pursuant to this section will be heard and decided in the same manner as motions submitted pursuant to Subparagraph (a)(1) of this Rule.

(c) The filing of a motion under Subparagraph (a)(1) or Paragraph (b) of this Rule does not automatically stay or otherwise affect the effective date of the final order.
