

24 NCAC 06A .0904 DISCLOSURE OF OPERATOR; OPERATOR ULTIMATELY RESPONSIBLE

- (a) Advertisements, promotions, and marketing messages used by an Operator or disseminated for the benefit of an Operator shall disclose the identity of the Operator.
- (b) Each Operator shall be responsible for the content and conduct of any and all advertising, marketing, or branding done on its behalf or to its benefit whether conducted by the Operator, an employee or agent of the Operator, or an Affiliated entity or a third-party pursuant to contract, regardless of whether such party is also required to be Licensed.
- (c) Each Operator shall provide a copy of the regulations contained herein to all advertising, marketing, branding and promotions personnel, contractors, agents, and agencies retained by the Operator or its agents and shall ensure and require compliance herewith.
- (d) Where an Operator or its agent engages a third-party Individual or entity to create or distribute social media content to advertise, market, or promote the Operator, social media messages or posts shall disclose the existence of the business relationship. Such disclosure may be included in the social media profile of the third-party Individual or entity.
- (e) Each Operator shall be responsible for the content and conduct of any and all advertising, marketing, and branding done on its behalf or to its benefit, whether conducted by such Operator, an employee or agent of such Licensee, or an Affiliated entity or agent of such Operator pursuant to contract or agreement.
- (f) No Operator shall advertise forms of illegal gambling in the State, unless the Advertisement disclaims conspicuously that the Wagering offerings are not available in the State.

*History Note: Authority G.S. 18C-114(a)(14);
Previously adopted as Rule 11-004;
Eff. January 8, 2024;
Readopted Eff. March 27, 2024.*