21 NCAC 10 .0303   SOLICITATION OF AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIMS

(a)   In-Person and Telephone Solicitation of Auto Accident Victims. In order to protect the public from misrepresentation, coercion or undue influence, it shall be unlawful for a doctor of chiropractic, or the doctor's employee, to initiate direct personal contact or telephone contact with any person who has been injured in a motor vehicle collision, or with any person residing in the injured person's household, for a period of 90 days following the collision, if the purpose of initiating contact is, in whole or part, to solicit the injured person to become a patient of the doctor.

(b) Acceptance of Referrals From Runners. It shall be unlawful for a doctor of chiropractic to accept as a patient any person injured in an automobile accident who was referred by a runner. As used in this Rule, the term "runner" means any person, firm or corporation that routinely obtains the names of injured persons from motor vehicle accident reports or other public records and then contacts those persons to induce them to seek medical or chiropractic treatment or pursue legal claims.

(c) Solicitation of Auto Accident Victims by Mail. A doctor of chiropractic may solicit persons injured in motor vehicle collisions at any time through the use of posted communications such as letters, brochures, information packages and sound or video recordings. The words, "This is an advertisement for chiropractic services" must appear on the communication's envelope or mailing container in print large enough to be easily read.

(d) Nonconforming Solicitation Deemed Unethical Conduct. Any solicitation of automobile accident victims which does not conform to the requirements of this Rule shall be considered a violation of the Rules of Ethics of Advertising and Publicity pursuant to G.S. 90-154.2(5).
